

Harlan presented with SWIPCO's Shining Bright Award at 40th anniversary event

HARLAN -- The City of Harlan was presented with the Shining Bright Award from the Southwest Iowa Planning Council's (SWIPCO) 40th anniversary celebration held in Harlan Thursday, Sept. 17.

The award is presented for community development efforts: housing stock assessment and improvements, assisting businesses in building improvements, and updating the city's comprehensive plan.
